WHEREAS, following remand of this case from the Court of Appeals, see Central States Southeast and Southwest Areas Health & Welfare Fund v. Merck-Medco Managed Care, L.L.C., 504 F.3d 229 (2nd Cir. 2007), Central States Southeast and Southwest Areas Health and Welfare Fund, Iron Workers Tri-State Welfare Fund and Sweetheart Cup Company (collectively, the Self-Funded Plans), moved pursuant to Rule 23(c)(4)(B), Fed.R.Civ.P., for (1) certification of a discrete ~~settlement~~ subclass consisting solely of self-funded employee health and welfare benefit plans, and (2) appointment of the Self-Funded Plans as the representatives of that subclass and their attorneys as subclass counsel; and the Court having read and considered the Self-Funded Plans' motion, memorandum of law and supporting exhibits; and the Self-Funded Plans' motion being unopposed by plaintiffs or defendants;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, this 17th day of March, 2008, that:

1. Pursuant to Rule 23(d)(4)(B), Fed.R.Civ.P., a subclass is hereby certified consisting exclusively of self-funded employee health and welfare benefit plans.

2. The Court finds that the prerequisites of Rule 23(d)(4)(B), Fed.R.Civ.P., for this subclass have been satisfied in that: (a) the number of subclass members is so numerous that joinder of all such members is impracticable; (b) there are questions of law and fact common to the subclass; (c) the claims of the named subclass representatives are typical of the claims of the subclass they seek to represent; (d) the Self-Funded Plans will fairly and adequately represent the interests of the subclass; (e) the questions of law and fact common to the members of the subclass predominate over any questions affecting only individual members of the subclass; and (f) a class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy.

3. Pursuant to Rule 23, Fed.R.Civ.P., Central States Southeast and Southwest Areas Health and Welfare Fund, Iron Workers Tri-State Welfare Fund and Sweetheart Cup Company are hereby certified as subclass representatives and their attorneys as subclass counsel.

4. The Court retains exclusive jurisdiction over the Action to consider all further matters arising out of the Settlement or Allocation of the Settlement Fund.
